

Alva Pool Must Be Saved

Local Lib Dem councillor John Biggam has called for the local group attempting to keep Alva Pool open to be given more time.

Save Our Swimming Pool - SOS - have been given only two months by the Council to save the Pool. John told Focus "I know SOS has worked hard to keep the pool open and their efforts deserve to be successful. But, I believe they need more time."

"It would cost the council practically nothing to extend the time slot. I know that this is the right team to take the Pool forward. I will be fighting to ensure the Council gives SOS the help that they need."

NEW SUPERSTORE WELCOMED

Lib Dem Councillor John Biggam welcomes the decision to allow a new supermarket at Sterling Outlet Centre. At last the council has done something to help revive the Hillfoots.

John told Focus "I believe this will be good for business and be a draw for visitors."

John Biggam holds regular surgeries between 5 - 6 pm as follows:

Alva Parklands

1st & 3rd Tuesday of month

Tillicoultry Community Centre

2nd & 4th Tuesday of month

Coalsnaughton Village Hall

3rd Wednesday of month

Surgeries may vary due to holidays so it is best to check in advance.

Rennie Elected to Fight for Clacks

Clackmannanshire now has a Lib Dem MSP, after Willie Rennie was elected to represent the Mid Scotland and Fife region.

Willie was subsequently elected as the new leader of the Scottish Lib Dems. He has already been described by the Daily Telegraph as 'Easily the most impressive opposition leader at Holyrood.'

Willie told a meeting of local party activists, "I'm excited about speaking up for Clackmannanshire in the Parliament."

"Scotland needs us to stand up for local services, for long term solutions and for making our country a place that finds opportunities for aspirational Scots."

Can Willie help you?

You can contact Willie by writing to Willie Rennie MSP, Scottish Parliament, Edinburgh, EH99 1SP. or email: Willie.rennie.msp@gmail.com Or phone 0131 348 5804

Reopen Tilly Glen

Tillicoultry Glen must reopen as soon as possible. There is currently a danger of rockfall, and one of the bridges is unsafe, so keep away just now.

Councillor John Biggam told Focus "This walk is important to locals and visitors alike. We need to leave no stone unturned to find the £60K needed to make it safe. After so many closures locally, lets keep Tilly Glen going.

New Hub for Tillicoultry

The Council proposes to close Tillicoultry Community Centre and use the old Family Centre as a new hub for the community.

Local Lib Dem Councillor John Biggam said, "I remember what the Council said when Alva's Dalmore Centre was closed, including promises about a new future for the pool. I will be holding the Council to account. They must keep their promises to Tillicoultry."
